

THE BIGGEST FURNITURE TRENDS TO EXPECT IN 2020

Sculptural seating, Art Deco-inspired designs, and much more.

By MONIQUE VALERIS NOV 26, 2019

It's no secret that the right piece of furniture can transform a room. Whether you opt for a unique custom creation or keep it simple with a stylish option from a mass retailer, it's all about finding furniture that speaks to your design aesthetic. If you're in need of some motivation to find furniture that you'll absolutely love, we have you covered.

We invited a selection of leading interior designers to offer their take on the top furniture trends to look out for in 2020. From sculptural furniture to European-inspired details, their insights are more than enough inspiration to outfit your home with the furniture of your dreams.

STATEMENT FURNISHINGS

Simon Upton

"Everything is cyclical in design, and right now we're seeing the resurgence of '80s trends, like curved sofas and other upholstered furnishings. We're also seeing a focus on statement pieces and furnishings that play with scale—like oversized lamps." — Andrea Goldman

2020'S TOP CARPET TRENDS, ACCORDING TO THE PROS

All the inspiration you need to make your flooring a focal point.

By MONIQUE VALERIS NOV 27, 2019

When you're a design buff, the new year is all about refreshing your home and there's no better place to start than with flooring. Whether you live in a cozy space that's perfect for layering rugs or a spacious abode that could benefit from a personality-packed design, we have a selection of designer-approved ideas to steer you in the right direction.

We invited top designers to share about the carpet trends we can expect to see in 2020. Read on for their thoughts, which include ideas to steal for your own space.

Eric Plasecki; Design by J. Randall Powers

2

NATURAL FIBERS

"Natural fibers like sisal continues to be a trend in rugs, and we're now seeing variations on the trend, like sisal woven with jute or wool. Also, we're seeing many clients opt for indoor-outdoor rugs, which have seen a drastic improvement in quality of late. Now, indoor-outdoor rugs, especially those by Perennials, are as soft and versatile as indoor options." — Andrea Goldman